"What Happened York success, "What Happened ary," which is now being played by the Myrkle-Harder company at the Davis theatre. Mr. Owen Davis in writting "What Happened to Mary" embodied in the play a remarkable combination of humor and heart interest. In the sense that the play teacher a lesson in human bigness it may be classed above the sq-called prob-lem dramas and yet it's problem is submerged to a great extent in the naturalness that pervades the action. The men and women in the play are The men and women in the play are of the every day type and the incidents in the course of the action are happenings that occur often in real life. This is one of the plays that can be enjoyed by every member of the family as there is a convincing moral that all can profit by. A complete production and a capable company of players to interrupt the cheracters make it a treat that should not be missed by anyone. Will be a great show by Myrkle-Harder Co.

The musical comedy farce introduced by these clever Hin-ky-Dee Giris with the two funny com-edians, Tom Carroll and Happy Mc-Nally, furnishing the biggest part of the fun is drawing big houses at every performance. The songs are new and catchy and many different costumes of the very latest styles are worn. The characters are well cast and the chorus is made up of unusually fine looking girls with good voices and who are all good dancers. The fifth episode of "Elaine" that facinating serial picture with Pearl White, Arnold Daly, and Seldon Lewis in the leading roles is very exciting and holds the closest attention of the audience from start to finish. The comedy picture today is "Caught With the Goods" a very funny L-KO with the plot laid in a small western town where a jealous sheriff and his wife starts things going in great shape. # SOFT, FLUFFY HAIR IS FIRST AID TO BEAUTY

Who does not love a head of pretty hair? Some women think it is a gift of nature and envy their more fortunate sisters. If your hair is not fluffy, soft and lustrous, is falling out, streaked, faded, brittle, or full of dandruff, and if the scalp itches, do not think it must always be that way, for pretty hair is only a matter of care and proper nourishment of the hair roots. Hair is something like a plant -if neglected it soon withers and dies, while with a little attention it keeps fresh and beautiful. Parisian Sage is a scientific preparation that supplies just the elements seeded to invigorate the hair roots and stimulate the hair to grow long, thick fluffy, soft and lustrous. It removes dandruff with one application and quickly stops itching head and falling hair. It is the ideal hair tonic and scalp treatment for men, women and children — contains nothing injurious and is delicately perfumed.

POETRY

THE DEAD WARRIOR.

No matter of what nation he may be Or on what spot of earth he made a home: No matter whether he be bond or free. To this same end he finally has come. Whether his cause be righteous or un-Whether his side shall win, or meet defeat.
His life-time body now is only dust.
Worthless alike in charge or in retreat.

Whether he be general or king.
Whether coward or whether brave,
The same conclusion waits this lifeless thing.
It reaches the inevitable grave.

Can we mortals who yet live our lives Look on this body and no lesson learn? Learn that no matter how one grows or thrives. His body must at last to dust return? Learn that the time remaining still to Be used for peace and not for brutal Learn true nobility, not strife and fuss: Learn real men are praised for what they are?

-C. W. Goodin. NOTHING WRONG.

There is nothing at all the matter, my boy:
The world goes plugging along
In the same old way, frem day to day,
Singing her good old song.
Maybe her songs grow old to you
And maybe your hopes grow dim.
But there's nothing at all the matter,
my boy.

It's only your foolish whim. There is nothing at all the matter, my strife, Get back to your works enfold, here is work laid out for your hands to do.
So stick to your task with vim:
here is nothing the matter, my boy—
It's only your foolish whim.

There is nothing at all the matter, my boy— Stand till your task is done; I's the way for a place in the world's mad race— It's the way that the end is won. There's a place at the too, but the way is long; Don't rail if your star grows dim. Son't say that the world's all wrong, my boy-It's only your foolish whim. -Unidentified.
